NEW WINTER HOURS!!!

Notice: As of Dec. 1st, we have switched to our shorter winter schedule.

Our hours of 30% off Storewide!!!

Sale includes ALL donated Community Forklift items.
This includes all items with orange price tags, as well as materials that we sell by the foot or pound like lumber, trim, pipe, flooring, screws, and nails.

(Cannot be combined with other sales.

Sale does not apply to crafts in the Green Gift Extravaganza, or items from our consignment partners: Treincarnation lumber, Alco appliances, Rox Produx granite crafts, or Salvage Arts items with white hanging tags).

For example, our regular price for this oak cabinet set is $500. Right now, you could have an entire kitchen of solid wood cabinets for just $350!

Or, you could have this stainless double-door fridge for a steal! Our regular price is $300, but it's only $210 on sale...you save $90 bucks!

More December Discounts!

Granite $7.50 a square foot

This month, all pieces under 12 sf are only $7.50/sf! That's a savings of 25%-40% off. Pieces smaller than three square feet remain a bargain at only $5.00/sf.

75% off five-gallon buckets of colored paint

We recently received dozens of five-gallon buckets of color paint. They retail for $40-$150, and we usually sell them for $25 each. But right now, they're yours for only $7.50 each! Sale does not apply white or off-white paint, other operation are now...

Wed, Thurs, & Fri:
10-6
Sat & Sun:
9-6

We remain closed on Mondays & Tuesdays.

Don't worry, we'll return to longer hours in the spring!

Holiday Hours

We will operate under our regular winter schedule, except:

Dec 24th: 10-2
Dec 25th: Closed
Dec 31st: 9-4
Jan 1st: Closed

50% off Medicine Cabinets

Take half off the marked price on modern and vintage mirrored medicine cabinets. Sale does not include bathroom vanity cabinets, kitchen cabinets, other types of furniture, white-tagged items from our Salvage Arts consignment partner, or items without price tags. Cannot be combined with other sales.

Here's a great project idea from A Beach Cottage: buy several vintage cabinets and detach the mirrors. Then group them on a wall to bring light into a dim corner or hallway (I think hanging the mirrors from ribbon would also add to the charm).

50% off Standard Trim

Take half off the regular prices on all surplus or salvaged pine or fir trim. Sale does not include dimensional lumber (2x4's, 2x6's, etc), trim made from specialty wood, or consignment items such as Treincarnation lumber. Cannot be combined with other sales.

50% off Laminate Counters

This month, laminate countertops are only $1 per linear foot. So a 6' long countertop would be just 6 bucks! Sale does not include granite, corian, concrete, or butcher block counters. There may be additional charges for attached sinks, faucets, cabinets, or accessories. Cannot be combined with other sales.

the Great Green Gift

Extravaganza!

Dec. 24th is the last day to find beautiful presents from local crafters, artisans, jewelers, and woodworkers at Community Forklift.

Dreamworks: David North, a longtime Forklift volunteer, brought in some of his cool leatherwork last week! Through several years of experience working at Renaissance Festivals, he learned how to make a range of historical and fantasy leather items, as well as collectible figurines and swords. He also does accurate replicas and custom orders (contact him at Drmworks1979@yahoo.com or 410-746-0859).

Zoe Neuberger makes beautiful pottery, including plates, bowls, and oil lamps at surprisingly affordable prices.

Rox Produx: I bet you didn't know that our floor manager is also a stone artist! It's hard to believe that Keith's beautiful clocks, bookends, and ornaments were once broken curbstones, discarded tile, & scraps of granite counters.

Deciduous Dave uses reclaimed and found wood to make gorgeous walking sticks, juggling pins, slate message boards, and more. He uses stair balusters and slate roof scraps from Community Forklift; as well as fallen holly, cherry, oak, and maple that he finds on walks near his home in Cheverly.

The Crafty Campbells: John and Michelle Campbell have been home renovators for over twenty years, and have been Forklift Fans from the beginning.

They are experts at creative reuse, and will be happy to tell you how they make useful items like laptop stands, planters, and serving bowls out of junk mail, concrete, salvaged paint, and reclaimed wood.

Michelle also will be selling herb garden kits, homemade cocoa kits, and her mouthwatering fudge in vintage tins.

Renee Rubin is inspired by African and Latin American arts & crafts made from scraps and unused materials. She makes bottle cap earrings, and the coolest purses out of Vogue magazines & packing tape!

Karin Konrad recycles old clothing and fabric into adorable boas, ornaments, purses and wreaths. I have my eye on her tweed scarf, and I particularly love her little felt birds!

Karmalades: Ensure your good Karma and that of the planet by using the Household Cleaner with a Conscience. Made locally by Cynthia Brevil, the Scrubbing Souffle is a natural nontoxic option for scrubbing your tub, counter tops, granite, stainless steel, refrigerator, sink, dishes, silver jewelry, tile and more! It comes in unscented, lemon meringue, coconut macaroon, almond butter, and lavender sugar cookie - yum!

Plarn It All: Patti Mallin crochets purses, totes, wine gift bags, and cell phone holders from "plarn" - plastic yarn made from 100% post-consumer recycled plastic bags. I like her slogan: "Saving the planet, one really cute bag at a time."

JellyBug Art & Home Accessories: Greenbelt artist Karen

Wallace recycles wine bottles and glass jars into charming, eco-friendly serving ware, desk accessories, and bird feeders in her 100% wind-powered studio.

Recicle Inn: Helena Barona & Adriana Alarcon are graduate students from Mexico. Currently interning in DC as part of the Mexican-U.S. civil service exchange program, they enjoy handcrafting as a hobby. They make earrings, purses, belts, and bracelets from anything imaginable: potato chip bags, newspapers, cotton threads, and soda pop tops!

Goyne Vintage: Amanda Goyne scours flea markets, yard sales and Community Forklift to find interesting and unusual items to work into vintage-style jewelry. Her lacy earrings made from clock hands are quite unique, and her antique key necklaces are very stylish (For more info, email Amanda, or call her at 706-897-4029)

Sherry G. Selevan has been a lifelong crafter, working in a variety of media and techniques. Her area of specialty is reclaimed glass, and she exhibits in local galleries. She brought us some unique little dishes - who knew broken tempered glass could be so beautiful? (For more info, email Sherry or call her at 301-920-0663)

IngeNEWityWORKs: Timothy DeVenney, a DC-based glass artisan, practices a form of folk art craftsmanship. Using scraps from other artists and a glass school, Tim makes small mosaics and kiln-fused glass pieces including wall art, dishes, mosaics, cufflinks, refrigerator magnets, and bottle stoppers. He also uses granite scraps from the Forklift for the base of his tealight candle holders (To commission an item, email Tim or call him at 202-316-2956).

Platwerkz: What began as an idea during a Hyattsville home remodeling has developed into unique handcrafted designs on metal light switch and outlet plates.

Daryll Harris uses contrasting colors, assorted applications, and finishes to create outstanding abstract geometric colors - enhancing surfaces and areas formerly ignored in decorating schemes (To commission an item, email Daryll or call him at 301-927-1808)
